'Okay, Kumori.' He replied to her and walked away.

'Wait!' Kumori said. 'Find my sister and give her power to become a magical girl!'

Juuichibey nodded as he left the girl alone.

>'What was that dream?!' Kuria said.

'Kuria, rise and shine or you'll be late to school.' Her mother yelled. Kuria's mom was cleaning the dishes and packing up her lunch.

Kuria puts her clothes on, takes her school bag and the lunch her mother placed on the table.

>She had finally arrived to school.

'I'm sorry Reina and Alice!' said Kuria helplessly crying with tears.

'It's okay, it's okay.' Reina said.

'We better go!' Alice ran to class. Reina and Kuria also ran to class together, because they were in the same room.

'Hey, everyone. We have a transfer student from Tokyo.' The teacher exclaimed.

'I wonder who it will be?' Some people said. Other people said, 'Is it a boy or girl?'

'You may come in,' The teacher says.

The transfer student came in, she was a girl.

'Aw, she looks so beautiful!'

'Her hair is long!'

'My heart is beating!'

'What's her name?'

'May you please write your name on the board?' The teacher asked.

The girl wrote her name, clear and big on the board.

'Azayaka Kumori..' Kuria screamed.

Even though they had the same last names (Kumori and Kuria), Kuria does not recognize that Kumori is her older sister. She also does not have any memories about her.

'Good morning..?' Kumori said in a deep low voice.
